

How to book and costs

Sessions must be booked and paid for at least one day in advance at the school office and paid for using Arbor (guidance can be found on the school website).

Tea Time Club has limited availability. If the club is oversubscribed, a waiting list will be held.

Fees are £6.00 per session

If sessions are not paid for then further bookings can not be taken.

Working parents on lower incomes, can benefit from claiming the childcare element of the working tax credit which can cover up to 70% of the costs of the club. Salary sacrifice schemes available from some employers can also be used towards the cost of After School Care. For further information, contact the school office on 0191 5862765.
